

LIEUTENANT COLONEL V H MOORHOUSE RAMC

COMMANDING OFFICER 1 ARMOURED MEDICAL REGIMENT

Commissioning into the Royal Army Medical Corps as a Physiotherapist in 1999, Lt Col Moorhouse has developed a wealth of experience across the Army Medical Services.

At Regimental Duty Lt Col Moorhouse has served at the Royal Hospital Haslar, 1 Close Support Medical Regiment, 204 (North Irish) Field Hospital, and 4 Medical Regiment. She has deployed on numerous overseas exercises including Ex SAIF SAREEA in Oman and Ex PRARIE STORM in Canada. Operationally, she has deployed to Bosnia on Op PALATINE, and as OC Task Force Helmand Medical Squadron to Afghanistan on Op HERRICK.

On the Staff Lt Col Moorhouse has served in a variety of roles including SO3 Individual Commitments and SO2 Medical Equipment Capability at HQ Land Forces; and SO2 Medical in HQ Theatre Troops. More recently, she has worked as the MA to the Director General of the Army Medical Services, and SO1 Medical Organisation in Army HQ.

Lt Col Moorhouse is married to Bob. They have two children, George and Alice, and an errant springer spaniel. She and Bob continue to enjoy running and road cycling, to help fend off the effects of their other love – gastronomy. She is also making reasonable impact on the Desert Island Discs archive with only just over 700 episodes left to listen to.
